MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

1. The name of the Company is Uisce Éireann.
2. The Company is a designated activity company limited by shares, that is to say a private company limited by shares registered under Part 16 of the Companies Act 2014.
- 2A. The Company is established under the Water Services Act 2013 conforming to the conditions contained within that Act and the Companies Act. The Company is the national authority for water services with responsibility for the functions assigned to it by or under the Water Services Acts 2007 to 2022. The Company is in State ownership and its shares are vested solely in the Ministers of the Government. The Water Services Acts prohibit the Ministers from disposing of their shareholding in the Company and thus places a statutory prohibition on the privatisation of the Company; and in the event of any proposal for legislation being brought forward at any future stage that would involve a change in the State ownership of the Company, the matter would have to be put to a plebiscite of the people.
3. The objects for which the Company is established are:

And it is hereby declared that the objects of the Company as specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs of this clause (except only if and so far as otherwise expressly provided in any paragraph) shall be separate and distinct objects of the Company and shall not be limited by reference to any other paragraph or the order in which the same occur or the name of the Company nor shall any express statement in any object that it is an object of the Company be taken to mean or imply that any object in this clause 3 not expressly stated to be such is not an object of the Company.

 - (b) any invitation or offer to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures or other securities of the Company is prohibited; and
 - (c) the Company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

3. Share Capital and Variation of Rights

- 3.1 The authorised share capital of the Company is €1,000,000 divided into 1,000,000 ordinary shares of €1.00 each.
- 3.2 Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares in the Company, any share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine with Ministerial Consent. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and to Ministerial Consent, any Shares may with the sanction of a special resolution be issued on terms that they are, or that at the option of the Company or the person holding any such Shares, they are, liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company, before the issue of such Shares, may by special resolution and with Ministerial Consent determine or as may be provided by these Articles and, subject as aforesaid, the Company may cancel any shares so redeemed or may hold them as treasury shares or may reissue any such treasury shares as shares of any class or classes.

- 3.3 If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the special rights attached to any class of Share or Shares may not be varied nor abrogated either while the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding-up, without Ministerial Consent and the consent in writing of the holders of 75 per cent or more of the issued Shares of that class or a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the class sanctioning that variation or abrogation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights conferred upon the holders of Shares of any class shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by:
- (a) the creation or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu therewith;
 - (b) the creation or issue of further Shares with any rights which are preferential to such rights; or
 - (c) the variation of the rights attaching to any other class of Share.
- 3.4 Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any Share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any Share or any interest in any fractional part of a Share or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any Share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder, but this shall not preclude the Company from requiring the members or a transferee of Shares to furnish the Company with information as to the beneficial ownership of any Share when such information is reasonably required by the Company.
- 3.5 Every person whose name is entered as a member in the Register shall be entitled without payment to one certificate for all of his or her Shares and, if he transfers part of his or her holding, to one certificate for the balance. Upon payment of such sum, not exceeding €0.05 for every certificate after the first, as the Directors shall from time to time determine, he or she shall also be entitled to several certificates, each for one or more of his or her Shares. Every certificate shall be issued within two months after allotment or the lodgement with the Company of a transfer of the Shares, unless the conditions of issue of such Shares otherwise provide. Every such certificate shall be under the Seal and shall specify the number and class of Shares to which it relates, the distinguishing numbers (if any) allocated to such Shares and the amount paid up thereon. The Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as joint holders of any Share (except in the case of executors or trustees of a deceased member) and, in the case of a Share held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate therefor and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
- 3.6 If any such certificate shall be worn out, defaced, destroyed or lost, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and on payment of such amount not exceeding €0.05 as the Directors shall require, and, in case of wearing out or defacement, on delivery up of the old certificate and, in case of destruction or loss, on execution of such indemnity (if any) as the Directors may from time to time require. In case of destruction or loss, the member to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigation by the Company of the evidence of such destruction or loss and to such indemnity.

4. Issue of Securities

4.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and these Articles, and provided that Ministerial Consent has been obtained in respect of each and any exercise of a power conferred by this Article 4, the Shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors and they may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, on such terms and conditions and at such times as they may consider to be in the best interests of the Company and its members.

5. Transfer of Shares and other Matters

5.1 All transfers of Shares shall be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form, or in any other form which the Directors may approve but need not be under Seal.

5.2 The instrument of transfer of a Share shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and in the case of a Share not fully paid shall also be signed by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

5.3 The Directors may, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, decline to register any transfer of any Share, whether or not it is a fully paid Share.

5.4 No Share, whether or not it is a fully paid Share may be transferred without Ministerial Consent.

5.5 If the Directors refuse to register a transfer they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

5.6 All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company.

5.7 Notwithstanding anything in these Articles, the Directors shall be entitled to refuse to recognise and to refuse to register a renunciation of the allotment of any Shares by the allottee in favour of some other person, in the same manner and for the same reasons, if any, but not otherwise as they would be entitled to refuse to recognise or to register a transfer of Shares from such allottee to such other person.

5.8 Sections 77-81 and 96 of the Companies Act shall not apply to the Company.

6. Increase and Alteration of Capital

6.1 The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution and subject to and with Ministerial Consent:

- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger amount than its existing Shares;
- (c) sub-divide its existing Shares, or any of them, into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association (subject, nevertheless to section 83(1)(b) of the Companies Act); and

- (d) cancel any Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken, or agreed to be taken by any person.
- 6.2 Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these Articles any capital raised by the creation of new Shares shall be considered part of the pre-existing capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained.
- 6.3 The Company may reduce its company capital in accordance with the Companies Act subject to Ministerial Consent.
7. Purchase of own Shares
- Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and to any rights conferred on the holders of any class of Shares, the Company may, with Ministerial Consent, purchase all or any of its own Shares of any class, including any redeemable shares. Neither the Company nor the Directors shall be required to select the Shares to be purchased rateably or in any other particular manner as between the holders of Shares of the same class or as between them and the holders of Shares of any other class or in accordance with the rights as to dividends or capital conferred by any class of Shares. Subject as aforesaid, the Company may cancel any Shares so purchased or may hold them as treasury shares and reissue any such treasury shares as Shares of any class or classes or cancel them. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, the rights attached to any class of Shares shall be deemed not to be varied by anything done by the Company pursuant to this Article.
8. General Meetings
- 8.1 Subject to Article 8.2 the Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meeting in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next.
- 8.2 So long as the Company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the year following.
- 8.3 Subject to Article 8.5, the annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall determine and all general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings and shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall determine.
- 8.4 The Directors may whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting shall also be convened by such members, or on such requisition (or in default may be convened by such requisitionists), as provided by section 178 of the Companies Act.
- 8.5 Subject to section 176 of the Companies Act, all general meetings (including annual and extraordinary general meetings and class meetings of members of the Company) may be conducted by means of telephone, video or other electronic means provided that all the persons entitled to notice of the meeting of the Company and the statutory auditors have been notified of the convening of the meeting and the availability of such electronic means for the meeting and, if present at the meeting, can hear and contribute to the meeting. Such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting and the participants may be situated in any part of the world for any such meeting.

9. Notice of General Meetings

- 9.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act an annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the Company (other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution) shall be called by 14 days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, and in the case of a proposed special resolution, the text or substance of that proposed special resolution, and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to such persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Company. Every such notice shall comply with the provisions of section 181(5) of the Companies Act as to giving information to members in regard to their right to appoint proxies. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 9.2 A meeting of the Company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in Article 9.1 be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by the statutory auditors and all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat.
- 9.3 Where, by any provision contained in the Companies Act, extended notice is required of a resolution, subject to section 396(3) of the Companies Act, the resolution shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Company not less than 28 days (or such other period as the Companies Act permits) before the meeting at which it is to be moved, and the Company shall give to the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting notice of any such resolution as required by and in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act.

10. Proceedings at General Meetings

- 10.1 The business of the annual general meeting shall include the matters specified at section 186 of the Companies Act other than the matters specified at paragraphs (d) and (f) of that section.
- 10.2 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Two members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting present in person, or by proxy, or (being corporations) present by a representative shall be a quorum for all purposes.

In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the members present may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand dissolved.

- 10.6 The chairperson of the meeting may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting
- 10.7 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the person or persons specified in section 189(2) of the Companies Act.
- 10.8 Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 10.9 Except on the question of an adjournment (in which cases a poll shall be taken immediately) a poll shall be taken in such manner and at such a time as the chairperson of the meeting may direct, and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting.

convening the meeting, before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more members for the time being entitled to attend and vote on such resolution at a general meeting (or being bodies corporate by their duly appointed representatives).

12. Corporates acting by Representatives
